NEW AND VALUABLE WORK

FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of the Government.

Of the State of ndiana,

CONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD.

Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,

INDIANAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawvers of the State, volunteered the followinecommendation of the work:

STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD. - Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al goods, or any part thereof, or in any manner interested the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annota-therein, that they be and appear before the said, the Districtions. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and edito-The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to this time the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in INITED STATES OF AMERICA, DISTRICT OF IN- the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs.

The volume under review contains another excellence vilits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices. so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what Now, therefore, in pursuance of the monition under the | was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn by give public notice to all persons claiming said goods, see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even of the United States, to be held at the city of Indianapo- the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three actof 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all

A still more valuable feature are the copious and accurate notes contained in the volume in question. This volume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs, Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and In every respect the volume under review is highly redrooms. The charges are moderate, the rooms and at- itable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few mouths, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book,

Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause anknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances to recognize me at all.

latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recom-mended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

OAE GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859

These and no other circumstances induced me to resert to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall

Dear Sir.—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hay every out coults lawyer and the state of three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair.
